ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the Superior Court of the State of Arizona, in and for the County of Santa Cruz.

In the Matter of the Estate of P. J. Hand, Deceased.

It appearing to this Court by the petition of Guadalupe Randall, administratrix of the estate of P. J. Hand, deceased, this day presented to this Court and filed in the office of the Clerk, that it is necessary to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate of said decedent, described in said petition, to pay the debts of decedent, the expenses and charges of administration, and to provide for the support and maintenance and education of the minor children of said decedent, and that it is to the best interest of the estate that said real estate be sold;

IT IS BY THE COURT ORDERED that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before the said Superior Court on Friday, the 5th day of January, A. D. 1923, at the hour of 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the court room of said Superior Court, at the court house in Nogales, Arizona, and show cause why an order should not be granted to said administratrix to sell so much of the said real estate as shall be necessary, and that a copy of this order be published for four consecutive weeks in The Border Vidette, a newspaper printed and published in said Santa Cruz County.

Dated Nogales, Arizona, December 1, 1922.

W. A. O'CONNOR,
Judge of Said Superior Court.

FIREMEN ELECT OFFICERS.

The Nogales Fire Department members met Wednesday night at the Firemen's Club, and elected the following officers for 1923: Captain L. W. Mix, honorary chief.

Bracey Curtis, Chief.
H. M. Claggett, 1st Assistant Chief.

Charles Field, 2nd Assistant Chief.

Robt. E. Lee, Secretary.
Louis Hudgin, Treasurer.

Papago Engine Co. elected A. S. Noon as foreman; Chas. Field, first assistant foreman; Taylor Wilkey, second assistant foreman; Louis Hudgin, executive member, and J. B. Bristol, secretary.

At the meeting of the department it was announced that the department had attended twenty eight fires during the past year; and that the property loss in the city during the past year had been smaller than for many years past.

The reports of the officers, showed that all of the equipment of the department is in first class condition; and that out of twenty five members to each company of the department an average of eleven members had attended all fires during the past year.

Report of the Firemen's Club committee, showed the Club to be in excellent condition, and that a large number of outsiders are joining the Club.

KIWANIANS HOLD MEETING.

The Kiwanis Club held one of the best meetings of the year, yesterday (Dec. 28) noon at the International Casino, says the Democrat.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Boy Scouts for their valuable services at the Christmas tree held December 25th, in the public plaza.

A similar vote was extended to William Bastain, manager of Kress and Company for the very liberal terms given the Kiwanis committee in the purchase of presents for the tree.

The thanks of the organization was voted John Peterson of the Peterson Produce company for generous donations of candy, while all others who served and helped to make the occasion a success were remembered in the same way.

W. G. Bowman said he was going to be present at every meeting held in the year 1923, and this statement was so inscribed on the minutes of the club.

H. R. Sisk presided at the luncheon, while F. F. Rodriguez was chosen as chairman for the next meeting.

The Kiwanians are going to make the year 1923 a banner one from all points of view; and if past performance, is any indication, this statement should be more than fulfilled.

Secretary Paulus read a report dealing with the last meeting, newly elected officers, and the board of directors.
